DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1, 7, 10, 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 and 7, “wherein the variable length encoding of said second assigned data block begins after the end of encoding of said first assigned data block, even if the encoding of the second assigned data block is completed prior to the end of encoding of the first assigned data block” is indefinite. It is impossible that the second assigned data block is encoded after and before the end of encoding of the first assigned data block in the same process.

The examiner suggests that “wherein the variable length encoding of said second assigned data block begins after the end of encoding of said first assigned data block in a first encoding process, even if the encoding of the second assigned data block is completed prior to the end of encoding of the first assigned data block a second encoding process”. Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 10 and 17, “the variable length decoding of a second data block begins after the end of decoding of a first data block, even if the decoding of the second data block is completed prior to the end of decoding of the first data block” is indefinite because a second data block has been decoded after the end of decoding of a first data block, which apposes to the decoding of the second data block is completed prior to the end of decoding of the first data block. It is impossible that the second data block is decoded after the end of decoding of the first data block, and the second data block is decoded prior the end of decoding of the first data block.

The examiner suggests that limitation should be "the variable length decoding of a second data block begins after the end of decoding of a first data block in a first decoding process, even if the decoding of the second data block is completed prior to the end of decoding of the first data block in a second decoding process". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Watanabe et al. (US 5,675,331) in view of Fujiwara et al. (US 5,689,254) and Allen et al. (US 5,583,500) as set forth in the previous Office Action, paper No. 25. As best understood by the examiner.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2613

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
